

SEANKELLY

CULTURED

February/March 2018 By Editors

The Twenty Five

We've gathered 25 exhibitions, happening and moments that have caught our attention—and we think they'll capture yours, too

Sweet Fifteen

In "15 [Quince]," Frank Thiel's new show at Sean Kelly gallery, the German photographer celebrates the visual culture of the Quinceañera and its ties to Cuban identity by documenting the young women of Havana in their traditional coming-of-age attire against the backdrop of the rapidly changing city. Filtered through the eyes and fashion of Cuba's maturing millennials, Thiel's images depict transformation as a double-edged force.

SKNY.COM

Frank Thiel's Damay y Yamay Gómez Hernández, La Habana, Plaza de la Revolución, Nuevo Vedado, 2015