A Pound of Pictures, Alec Soth, Mack, 156pp, €70 (hb)

The US photographer Alec Soth presents a new body of work made between 2018 and 2021 during one of his many meanderings across the United States, capturing the odder aspects of life across both Biden's and Trump's America. Soth's documentary images depict a wide range of subjects from Buddhist statues and birdwatchers to sun-seekers and busts of Abe Lincoln. Soth says that the pictures are "about going into the ecstatically specific world and creating a connection between the ephemeral (light, time) and the physical (eyeballs, film)". An accompanying exhibition runs at Sean Kelly Gallery, New York (14 January-26 February).
