Recipient of the prestigious 2017 Roy R. Neuberger Exhibition Prize, Argentine artist Leandro Erlich’s “Port of Reflections” will be on view at Neuberger Museum of Art from February 5 till July 30, 2017.

It is a biannual exhibition prize given to an exceptional artist for an early career survey. The exhibition will be accompanied by a fully-illustrated exhibition catalogue documenting the artist's innovative work. The exhibition will also include a selection of models and videos tracing the artist's trajectory.

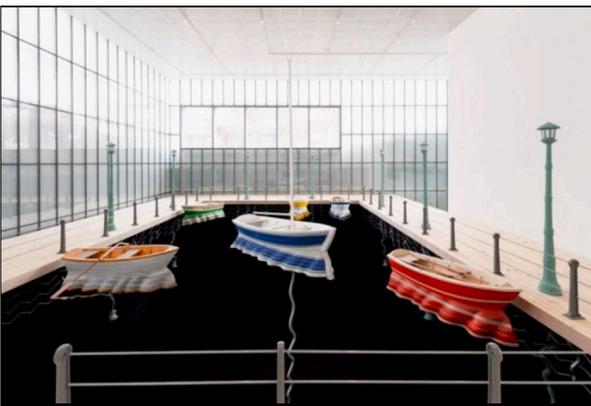

The exhibition is co-curated by Patrice Giasson, Alex Gordon Associate Curator of Art of the Americas and Helaine Posner, Chief Curator.
