35. "Kehinde Wiley: Trickster" at Sean Kelly

Kehinde Wiley is back with a series of new portraits, including portraits of contemporary artists like Nick Cave, Rashid Johnson, Kerry James Marshall, Hank Willis Thomas, and Yinka Shonibare. He uses the mythological trope of the trickster to examine how artists interrupt the status quo and change how we think about the world. He's restricted his use of color in this new series, pulling on Goya's "Black Paintings."
